

BROMLEY AUTISTIC TRUST presents:

TEACCH in the Home
Managing Autism at home

Friday 3rd November 2006, 10.00-3.00pm at Bromley Town Church, 2 Ethlebert Road

Presented by Marie Doyle, SEN Advisor and ASD Development Worker

Division TEACCH's structured teaching approaches have been used worldwide and were developed from our understanding of the unique thinking and learning needs of people with Autistic Spectrum Disorders. TEACCH uses visual systems to organise routine and the environment and is used throughout the UK, particularly in classroom settings.

This course will look at how the principles can be practically used in the home or out in the community.

The course aims:-

- ❖ To increase our understanding of ASD thinking and learning
- ❖ To learn the key principles of using TEACCH
- ❖ To be able to adapt supportive strategies for managing daily home life

Anxiety Anger and ASD

Thursday 30th November 2006, 9.30 – 4.30pm at Oakley House, Bromley, Kent

A one day conference to look at the needs of young people with Asperger Syndrome and High Functioning ASD

The conference is aimed at parents, carers, professionals and young people with ASD and Asperger Syndrome. The day will explore what living with ASD and Asperger Syndrome can be like, the challenge of daily life, what anxieties are faced and why anger can often manifest as a result.

Our speakers will offer practical strategies from both a personal, professional and academic perspective on how we can help the young person to reduce anxiety, manage their anger and seek more productive ways of coping with the rigours of every day life.

The speakers are: Jenny Ronayne, Dr Katingo Giannoulis, Luke Beardon and Genevieve Edmonds

Costs for Parents/Carers/Individuals with ASD	£45.00
Costs for Professionals	£85.00
